

JAS. W. GLOVER, LTD.

CONSTRUCTION ENGINEER INTERNSHIP

Jas. W. Glover, Ltd., a locally owned and operated general contracting company with license number ABC-3, has proudly served Hawai'i's construction industry since 1935. The company maintains general contracting operations on Oahu, Hawai'i, Maui and Kaua'i. On the island of Oahu, the company manufactures asphaltic concrete from its 248 Sand Island facility. On the island of Hawai'i, the company quarries and produces basaltic aggregates in Hilo. The company manufactures ready mix concrete and asphaltic concrete at its Hilo and Kona facilities. On the island of Kaua'i, the company quarries and produces basaltic aggregates from the Halfway Bridge quarry and limestone sand from the Maha'ulepu quarry. The company also manufactures ready mix concrete and asphaltic concrete at its Halfway Bridge facility in Lihue.

General Tasks (but not limited to):

Assist project manager and team with deliverables.

Assist in quantity and material takeoffs.

Assist in field measurements.

Maintain general documents and perform miscellaneous office tasks as needed.

Be able to communicate with vendors and subcontractors.

Ability to read plans and specifications.

Ability to perform misc. calculations.

Openings:

There are two positions available in our engineering department (Oahu). Any engineering major is welcome, preferably civil engineering.

Working Hours & Location:

7:00 AM to 5:30 PM, Monday through Friday in Honolulu, Hawaii (Oahu Office)

Flexible working hours and days. Able to accommodate your school or break schedule.

Compensation:

Interns paid at an hourly rate of $21 to $27.

To Apply:

Please email your resume to wunshenc@gloverltd.com