Lia Young Hunt has extensive experience in the aviation industry, growing up on the HNL south ramp. An International Baccalaureate graduate of Mid Pacific Institute, she excelled as a student-athlete at Santa Clara University, leading the Broncos to back-to-back West Coast Conference championships and earning honors all four years. She later earned her Aviation Maintenance Technician certificate and Private Pilot's license, followed by a professional career on the AVP Beach Volleyball Tour, where she appeared in global ad campaigns for brands like Nike and Bolle. Returning to Goldwings in 2007, she became Director of Operations and Strategic Development, and in 2015, was named President. Under her leadership, Goldwings achieved multiple certifications (8(a), SB, WOSB, EDWOSB, HUBZone, DBE) and was recognized as a Pacific Business News "Innovative Company of the Year" finalist. In 2019, Goldwings was featured in SBA and OHA campaigns. As Chief Educational Officer, Lia emphasizes education as a core company value.
